

DIRECT 2 START

Back in action

DIREC2START is our new programme that aims to give a concrete answer to the questions of many young people who want to get many young people who want to have a quick access to a "real job". But it is difficult without a diploma, with limiting beliefs, limited knowledge of the labour market, its codes and the necessary administrative administrative procedures, with little self-knowledge, limited self-confidence and capacity for expression insufficient knowledge of all job search tools,

We take them on a short but powerful journey to find out how to cope. They become They become aware of the reality and take action. They recognise their own shortcomings and understand better what they need.
what they need. They develop critical thinking skills and ask themselves whether they should finally They learn to talk about themselves. They learn to talk about themselves and to believe again in their own possibilities and They learn to talk about themselves and to believe again in their own possibilities and abilities. A first envelope with new codes and new ideas can be a first step.

Until the end of 2021, we will test different formulas. From 2022 onwards, we will start with the real.
